

Challenges faced by startup companies and how would they solve them on 13th December 2019

An activity was conducted in which there were 4 teams of 4 people each. Each team was given a startup and was supposed to pick out the challenges that were faced by the start-ups and what would their solution be. This was in a form of a group discussion where people openly spoke their minds out and had a healthy discussion.

